HIGHLIGHTS OF MINUTES TAKEN

June 10, 2001

Meeting called to order by Pres. John Turbeville.

A booth was discussed for the SCGS July Workshop. John Turbeville, Marsha Ulmer and Larry Ulmer agreed to be responsible for the booth.

Boyd Weeks announced that the President of LDS Church had given permission for our Chapter to hold our Chapter Workshop on August 11th during 9am until 4pm.

Jane Litchfield and Doris Lucas finished the Live Oak Cemetery updates. Marsha asked what would be on the front cover of the Live Oak Volume. Judy Ballard suggested a picture of the cemetery gate.

Dr. David Hiott presented a program on his genealogical research.

Deborah suggested that we place announcements of the workshop in the LDS Church and the Colleton County Memorial Library.

Margo Everett made motion to adjourn, Judy Ballard seconded. Meeting adjourned.

NO MEETING IN JULY 2001 AND AUGUST 2001

HIGHLIGHTS OF MINUTES TAKEN

September 9, 2001

Pres. John Turbeville called meeting to order.

Reports of the Treasurer's Report and the June Minutes were accepted as read.

John Turbeville reported on the successful workshop in August.

Due to complications of those who were to operate the booth at the annual SCGS workshop, our chapter did not have a booth as planned.

Nominating Committee needed on more person. Myrtle Linder and Boyd Weeks already on the committee.

In lieu of a speaker for a program, discussion of unusual situations which sometime happen while doing genealogy.

David Hiott made a motion to adjourn, it was seconded and meeting was adjourned.

HIGHLIGHTS OF MINUTES TAKEN

October 14, 2001

In absence of our President and Vice President our treasurer, Judy Ballard presided. The meeting was called to order minutes and treasurers report given and approved.

Deborah Toa appointed to open slot in our Nominating Committee. Committee to present list of 2002 chapter officers at the November meeting.

Discussion regarding Capt. I. I. Fox diary and the purchase of the diary. Judy Ballard learned that the compiler of the diary was done by a distant cousin, Mrs. Florence Kegley. Mrs. Kegley suggested that we borrow a copy of the diary and have it copied at Kinko's. Anyone wishing to contact Mrs. Kegley may do so at the following: Mrs. Florence Kegley, 313 Redfern, Birmingham, AL 35209 Tel. (205) 942-6381. Even though the Fox Diary is only for one year, it is good written history of the Colleton County, SC area.

Dr. David Hiott made a motion to adjourn, Bob Williams seconded the motion and the meeting was adjourned.
