MEETING HIGHLIGHTS January 9, 2011

President, Bob Williams called the meeting to order. Minutes and Treasurer's Report were approved.

February speaker to be Bob Eberly, his topic black civil war soldiers.

David Hiott presented his notebook on Colleton District Court Documents.

A motion was made and carried that we publish the documents on our website. The announcement should be included in the next Rice Planter.

More work remains to be done on cemeteries for upcoming book.

New Business:

Motion made and carried regarding out of town speakers receiving a gratuity.

Motion made and carried regarding purchase of SC Magazine of Ancestral Research collection. This would bring our Research Center's collection up to date.

Future speaker to be representative from River's Bridge State Park.

Business Meeting to be first Sunday in May.

Chapter Workshop to be second Saturday in June.

Larry Ulmer distributed 2011 NGS Conference catalogues. More volunteers are needed for the conference in Charleston and for May 10th at the Archives in Columbia. Please contact Larry Ulmer.

In attendance were: Julie Bell, Joyce Breland, Fran Grande, David and Bobbie Hiott, Victoria Tuten, Larry and Marsha Ulmer, Bob Williams.

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

February 13, 2011

Meeting called to order by Pres. Bob Williams.
Deferred reading of the minutes.
Treasurer's Report read and approved.
Scheduled speaker Bob Eberly canceled due to family illness.
Announced Speaker Jan Alpert, past president of the National Genealogical Society was to speak on "Using Military Reports to Solve Genealogical Problems". Jan delivered a very comprehensive explanation of the many types of information available on military service personnel, why and where they are kept and how to obtain them. She also provided personal examples of the way these records have unlocked information for her. After her presentation she talked about the NGS Conference scheduled for May 2011 in Charleston, SC. She donated to our Chapter a number of Beginner's Get Started Booklets and passed out conference schedules.
Bob Williams presented her with a book and gratuity.
In attendance were: Julie Bell, Jo Ann Boone, Catherine Branham, Joyce Breland, Carleton and Mary Ann Burt, Graham and Fran Grande, Lenore Hickman, Myrtle Hilton, David and Bobbie Hiott, J. Edwin Hiott, Tracy Johnston, Norman Ketchie, Joy M. Lawson, Mary Ann Lilienthal, Nancy Moorer, Clarence Ryan, Libby Steadman, Larry and Marsha Ulmer, Bob Williams

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

March 13, 2011

Meeting called to order by Pres. Bob Williams.
Treasurer's Report distributed.
Deferred reading of the minutes and Treasurer's Report.
Two Volunteers from each Chapter will be needed for the NGS Conference in May. See David Hiott to volunteer.
Norman Ketchie has volunteered on a regular basis for our Research Center which is open for Genealogical Research on Tuesdays and Saturdays. He suggested that any member on a social network should put OSBGS web page on their page to encourage more use of our facility.
Apr 10th Speaker to be Nicholas Maher of the Mayflower Society.
May Meeting to be a Business Meeting.
May 11 – May 14 NGS Conference in Charleston, SC
David Hiott report membership for the year is now 115.
Bob Williams introduced our speaker, John White, Ranger-Interpreter from the State Park Service, River's Bridge State Park. River's Bridge is a 390 acre historic site whose main focus is the battlefield and memorial grounds. The Memorial Grounds were created in 1876 with the re-interment of the confederate dead from five counties: Barnwell, Colleton, Hampton, Bamberg, and Allendale. In the future Ranger White hopes to give living history tours on Saturday mornings, build a small visitor's center, re-open the defunct museum on site, and do archeological digs to locate confederate hospital sites. The park has a hiking trail, picnic area and shelter and community building.
Those in attendance were: Julie Bell, JoAnn and John Boone, Catherine Branham, Fran and Graham Grande, Jeff Grigg, Bobbie and David Hiott, Bonnie and Norman Ketchie, Joy Lawson, Libby Steadman, Larry and Marsha Ulmer, John White, Robert Williams.

RESOURCES FOR MILITARY RESEARCH

Jan Alpert, past President of the National Genealogical Society gave to those attending her lecture on "Using Military Reports to Solve Genealogy Problems" a list of Resources which would help Researchers in obtaining information on their Ancestors.
