MEETING HIGHLIGHTS
 October 9, 2011

President, Bob Williams called the meeting to order. Treasurer’s Report was distributed among membership. Old Business:

Dorothy Pritchard Pinkney Gnann will be our speaker in November. She will speak on the Pinkney Colony founded in Bluffton by Eustace Pinkney

Larry Ulmer led discussion on the new cemetery book. A problem still exists with formatting of the information. It will take significant work before it will be ready for publishing. It was suggested that we include Geographic boundaries of the cemeteries.

New Business:

Discussion of membership expiration dates on mailing labels of the Rice Planter.

Marsha Ulmer suggested our chapter become members of the Huxford Society so we could get future copies of their magazine. She also made mention of a possible speaker on Britton Williams family.

Bob Williams brought to chapter’s attention that S.C. Historical Society is having a tour Oct 29th and 30th.

Fontaine Family will meet in Charleston in early Fall 2012. Meeting was adjourned.

Those in attendance were: Julie Bell, Bobbie Hiott, Victoria Tuten, Marsha and Larry Ulmer, Robert Williams.
