MEETING HIGHLIGHTS
 April 15, 2012

David Hiott called the meeting to order. We were pleased to have Jan Alpert as our guest speaker. She talked on the 1940 Census and a lot of helpful suggestions for using to do research. She also highlighted the other census years. She gave us a website to convert the 1930 enumeration District to the 1940 Enumeration District.

Reading of the minutes and Treasurer’s report were deferred until our next business meeting in May. David Hiott announced that the speakers for our June Workshop will be Bill Jacques on the Jacques/Hoff families and Tracey Terry from the Spartanburg Family Research Center on how to use the internet for genealogy research.

Meeting Adjourned.

Those in attendance were: Jan Alpert, Julie Bell, Jo Anne Boone, Genia Floyd, Linda Godley, Sam Hazel, David and Bobbi Hiott, John Hiott, Billy Syfrett, Libby Steadman, Deborah Toa, Victoria Tuten, Marsha and Larry Ulmer.

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

May 6, 2012

David Hiott called the meeting to order.

Confirmation of Guest Speakers for the Annual Chapter Workshop. They are to be Bill Jacques and Tracy Terry. Larry Ulmer to email flyer to all membership. David Hiott will see that it is announced in The Press and Standard, The Colletonian, and The Post and Courier.

Treasurer's report given and accepted. There will be no meeting in July and August. We are in need of speakers for the September and November meetings.

The contract has been renewed for the Research Center Facility.

It was suggested that we do an updated inventory of all equipment and furnishings and that it be sent to Larry Ulmer for safekeeping.

Meeting adjourned.

Those in attendance were: Julie Bell, Joyce Breland, David and Bobbi Hiott, Larry and Marsha Ulmer.

WORKSHOP HIGHLIGHTS

June 9, 2012

Our Annual Chapter Workshop was opened by David Hiott.

Larry Ulmer introduced 1st guest speaker, Bill Jacques. Mr. Jacques is a retired insurance executive from the Atlanta area; he was born in Walterboro and reared in Cottageville. He spoke on the spelling variations of Jacques, Jaques, Jakes, etc and the meaning of the name in various languages. He discussed his DNA results and presented a review of German history and emigration to the New World as a backdrop to his family history.

During a short break, Victoria Tuten announced that the Hampton County Historical Society will soon include a genealogy center. They will host a workshop on Saturday, July 28th at 10:00 AM at the Greater Faith International Ministries on Caroline Ave. Speakers will be David Hiott and Wevoneeda Minus. Tracey Terry announced that the Charleston Family History Center will have a Genealogy Workshop on Sat., Oct. 27th.

David Hiott introduced 2nd guest speaker, Tracey Terry. She is the Director of the Family History Center in Spartanburg, SC. Tracey shared a lot of great tips for researching on the internet. Among the sites she discussed were: Google Books, You Tube, Dead Fred, What was there?, Twitter, Pinterest, Skype, Family Search, Fold 3, Find A Grave, Billion Graves, and Ancestry.com. She walked us through all the tools and features of the Family Search.org website.

Following the speakers, the Research Center was open to all attendees interested on researching their families.

Those in attendance were: Julie Bell, JoAnn Boone, Joyce Breland, Milton A. Carson, Deborah Getter, Sam Hazel, George Hearn, Sandy Hearn, Bobbie and David Hiott, Kaye Hull, William and Anne Jacques, Julie James, Deborah Jenkins, Joy M. Lawson, Billy J. McGinnis, Lynn Polk, Janice Sauls, Libby Steadman, Tracey and Lee Terry, Victoria Tuten, Larry and Marsha Ulmer, and Sherry Walker.
