MEETING HIGHLIGHTS April 14, 2013

Joyce Breland called meeting to order. Minutes and Treasurers report given and approved. Dr. Hiott gave report on Monetary Gifts Given. Approval given to purchase a copy of "The Roll of the Dead" to be given to the OSBGC in memory of Robert "Bob" Williams.

Introduction of our guest speaker, Bob Connelly. Bob Connelly shared with members and guests information on "The Getsinger Family and Allied Families. Joseph Getsinger came from Germany and settled in Pomaria, close to Dutch Fork and Columbia. He married Mary Cook and they moved to the Ulmer, Sycamore Township area of Colleton County. Some families associated with the Getsingers are Hardee, Kinard, Ault, and Brandt. They intermarried with Kearsse, Kirkland, McMillan, Moye, and Brabham. Mr. Connelly stated how important Census Records are despite sometimes misspelled names, difference in ages and sometimes even homes that were missed. He went on to express the importance of Death Certificates, Church Records, and Old Obituaries.

Meeting adjourned.

Workshop Highlights
June 8, 2013

Welcome.

Dr. David Hiott introduced Guest Speaker, Dot Glover.

Five Families of St. Paul's Parish: Their Histories and their Contributions: William Waight Elliott, Ambrosio Jose` Gonzales, Lewis Morris V, John Berkley Grimbball, and Hawkins Septimus King.

Their Plantations & the history of their Plantations.

Histories of the Families and their Contributions: All these men were well educated, active church members, served their country in the military and became Public Servants. Each of these men were ruined by the Civil War. Either they or their descendants regained their properties after the Civil War.

Dr. David Hiott spoke on "Some Ways to Cope with Colleton as a Burned County." (All wills, deeds, conveyances, tax records, court trial cases, etc were sent to Columbia for safekeeping in 1865, and promptly burned – with the city – by Sherman's troops.)

Available:

- 1850 and 1860 Census.
- Court Docket Ledgers, which were not burned.
- A pittance of local church records for that era.
- McElligott booklet on re-registered conveyances.
- The Bryan Journal (sequestered).
- Cemetery searches, books, and web sources.
- Wills made before 1800 (kept in Charleston).
- Religious Newspapers, esp. Methodists and Baptists.
- Death Certificates just after 1915.
- Ancestry.com and Queries on other free genealogy sites.
- The Colleton Tree – over 22300 people indexed.
- Work on kin from other counties.

Many returned after lunch and did research on their families. We welcomed over 25 guests.
