Meeting called to order by President, Joyce Breland. Treasurer's Report Given. President, Joyce Breland introduced our guest speaker, Dr. Peter von Lehe. Dr. von Lehe gave a very interesting and information talk about Rock Spring Plantation. A spring of water gushing from a rock gave the plantation its name. It was settled and owned by several generations of the Lemacks family. The founder of this family was John Lemacks. John Lemacks married Eliza Hayne, probably a relative of Col. Isaac Hayne. Their son, Charles Hayne Lemacks, married Harriet Mary Walter, youngest daughter of Jacob Walter, one of the founders of Walterboro, SC. The property is owned today by J. D. and Peter von Lehe. The family graveyard still exists.

Guests and visitors were excused from a membership Business Meeting. Dr. David Hiott called for a vote by the membership to withdraw from the South Carolina Genealogical Society. Other items discussed and voted on were a name change from Old St. Bartholomew Genealogical Chapter to Colleton Genealogy Society (previously voted on by the Board) and a reduction in membership dues in 2015 because we would no longer have to pay a portion of the dues to the SCGS.
