The Colleton Genealogy Society was called to order by Pres. Joyce Breland.

Treasurers Report given and approved.

The next meeting will be May 1st due to Mother's Day. Dr. Hiott will speak.

The Annual Workshop will be held the first Saturday in June. Several speakers have been planned.

Ms. Breland introduced the speaker of the day, Mrs. Sunni Bond-Winkler.

She is a native of Tennessee and a graduate of Peabody College and Virginia Tech. She has been teaching for 31 years and began doing genealogical research 35 years ago. She is presently registrar with the Dr. George Mosse Society, NSSAR, Hilton Head Island and the Emily Geiger Chapter, NSDAR Bluffton, SC

Her topic for discussion was DAR and SAR Applications. How They Differ and How They are the Same. She stated that many of the early applications were lacking in documentation. On the present DAR application, all blanks on numbers 1,2, and 3 must be filled in. SAR will accept a DAR application as proof but the DAR will not accept SAR as proof. She is willing to help those who have encountered a brick wall in their proof. She gave several interesting examples and how she has helped others solve problems. She stated emphatically that DAR will not connect the dots for you.

Those in attendance: Doris S. Bales. Cathy Branham, Joyce Breland, Dr. David and Bobbi Hiott, Joan Hiott, John Hiott, Matt Hiott, Joy M. Lawson,

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

May 1, 2016

Meeting called to order by Pres. Joyce Breland. Treasurer's Report given and approved. Joyce Breland introduced the speaker of the day, Matthew Hiott. His topic Rev. Archibald Stobo and his connection to Colleton County, SC.

Rev. Archibald Stobo was born about 1670 in Scotland. He received a master's degree in Theology from the University of Edinburgh. He married Jul 09 1699 Elizabeth Jean "Eliza" Park, daughter of James Park and Jean Scott. In 1699 he was sent as a Presbyterian missionary to Darien, Panama. When the colony surrendered to the Spanish, the settlers including Rev. Stobo and his wife were ordered to leave. They boarded a ship named "Rising Sun" returning them to Europe. The ship in bad need of repair dropped anchor at the mouth of the Ashley River on Sep 3 1700. Rev. Stobo was asked to disembark from the ship to preach to Charles Town dissenters and marry a young couple. It was during this time that a hurricane drove the Rising Sun from her anchorage. The ship sank and all passengers aboard her perished. Rev. Archibald Stobo took up residence in Charleston, SC to preach at the Circular Meeting House to various dissenters (those who disagreed with the Anglican faith; this included Congregationalists, Presbyterians, and some Baptists). He and his wife had four children, James born about 1705, William born about 1707, Elizabeth born Oct 14 1709, and Jean born about 1710. He established churches at Cainhoy, James Island, Willtown, John's Island and Pon Pon (or Jacksonboro). The later church became Bethel Presbyterian Church of Walterboro. The Jacksonboro church was founded about 1728. Its ancient cemetery still remains. Rev. Archibald Stobo died about 1741 (his will probated 1741 in Charleston, SC), his wife died about 1747. He had numerous notable descendants including President Theodore Roosevelt. This was a very interesting and information presentation.

Meeting ajourned. Those in attendance were: Betty Black, Jo Anne Boone, Cathy Branham, Joyce Breland, Rosemary Hadwin, Bobbi Hiott, Joan and Johnny Hiott, Katie Mae Hiott, Matt Hiott, Joy Lawson, Mary Catherine Plowden and Moultrie Plowden, Billy Syfrett, Heather Tuten, Victoria Tuten, Butch and Betsy Waters.

SUMMER WORKSHOP

Jun 4, 2016

The Colleton Genealogy Society held it's summer workshop Jun 4, 2016. Registration was held from 9 A.M to 10 A.M. with doughnuts and coffee being served.

Joyce Breland President welcomed our guests and introduced the first guest speaker, Bing Chambers.

His topic for the day concerned Confederate soldiers who died in the war whose deaths have never been reported. He stated that two attempts were made to compile a list but they were never completed. The second attempt was placed in a safety deposit box until 1930. It was removed and submitted to the U. S. government. It was returned in the 1990's and became 'The Roll of the Dead'. Mr. Chambers had gone through the Compiled Service Records of Confederate soldiers and found hundreds of soldiers who have not been reported dead. His research has resulted in two books: AND WERE THE GLORY OF THEIR TIME, Infantry and cavalry in separate volumes.

Joyce Breland introduced our second speaker Mr. Billy Syfrett who spoke on Colleton County soldiers who died in the war.

Mr. Syfrett has done extensive work and research with the Sons of the Confederate Veterans. Mr. Syfrett presented photos and histories of many veterans. He has located many graves in local cemeteries: Doctors Creek Baptist Church, Evergreen Christian Church, Grace Advent Christian, Zion Baptist, Shiloh Baptist, and Live Oak Cemetery. A total of 372 died from Colleton County, SC.

The meeting was adjourned to allow visitors to do personal research and have lunch. A great time shared by all.

Those attending were: Carlisle Avant, Doris S. Bales, Cindy Belknap, Julie Bell, Jo Anne Boone, Cathy Branham, Joyce Breland, Bing Chambers, Sam Hazel, Bobbi and David Hiott, Billy Syfrett, Heather Tuten, Victoria Tuten, Larry and Marsha Ulmer.
