MEETING HIGHLIGHTS September 11 2016

The Colleton Genealogy Society was called to order by Pres. Joyce Breland.
 Treasurers Report given and approved.
 The next meeting will be Oct 9th. Dot Glover will speak.
 Dr. David Hiott reported that five boxes of books and documents had been received from Jean Batton estate.
 Larry Ulmer was pleased to inform members that The Press and Standard is being digitized.
 Ms. Breland introduced the speaker of the day, Mr. John Steele well known artifact collector.
 John Steele's topic of the day was "Old Area Documents and Seals". Some documents are printed and some are handwritten. Hand written documents are called manuscripts. They were the official records of the lives and situations at a particular time in history. Many people collect documents for their signatures which can be very valuable. Some documents that are collected include land sales, soldier's letters, stocks and bonds, and maps. Seals date back to the twelfth century. Some were made of wood and some of metal. They made the document official. Mr. Steele displayed an extensive collection of documents from various periods of South Carolina history.

Meeting adjourned.

Those in attendance: Doris S. Bales, Betty Black, Jo Anne Boone, Cathy Branham, Joyce Breland, Dr. David and Bobbi Hiott, John Hiott, Kay Hull, John Steele, Barbara Steele, Billy Syfrett, Victoria Tuten, Heather Tuten, Larry and Marsha Ulmer, D. P. Von Lehe.
