MEETING HIGHLIGHTS January 08 2017

The Colleton Genealogy Society was called to order. Treasurers Report given and approved.
 The next meeting will be Feb 12th Bill Davies to speak on Robert Mills, America's First Architect.
 Annual Colleton Genealogy Society Workshop will be held Jun 03 2017 at 10AM. with signin at 9:30AM. It was agreed upon that the Annual Free Workshop would only have one lecturer so that attendees could spend more time doing research. The workshop will end at 3:00 PM. Arrangements will be made for assistance if more time is needed.
 Pres. Joyce Breland introduced our guest speaker, Dr. David W. Hiott. Topic: His vast collection of research material which has been made available to fellow researchers.
 Dr. Hiott is using Legacy for entering his information which now totals over 288,000 individuals. He answered questions that attendees had regarding some of their ancestors. This material is made available to you via our computer at our Research Center. Dr. Hiott addressed some questions regarding his home which is located in the Walterboro Historical District . His home was built in 1838 with additions in 1860 and 1938. They have lived in their home for 40 years. Many Colleton families have held title to his home such as Henderson, Dent, Horry, Jones, Lining, McDaniel, and numerous others. Meeting adjourned.

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

February 12 2017

The Colleton Genealogy Society was called to order by Joyce Breland, Pres.

Treasurer's Report given and approved.

Dr. Hiott informed members that our Research Center is receiving additional rooms along with a facelift of paint and new blinds.. We have had a sizable increase in our resource material, making it desirable to have more space. We wish to extend a most grateful THANK YOU to all those making this possible.

Dr. Hiott introduced our speaker Mr. Bill Davies.

Mr. Davies was born in Greenwood, SC graduated from the Citadel and the University of South Carolina Law School. He served 5 year in the Army, and then worked for a law firm in Columbia, SC. He is a member of the SC Historical Society and a member of the Board. Mr. Davies topic was Robert Mills.

Robert Mills was born Aug 12 1771 in Charleston, SC son of William and Ann Taylor Mills. He studied at the College of Charleston.

In 1799 he moved to Washington where he was employed by James Hoban. He met Thomas Jefferson and helped in the design of Monticello.

In 1808 he married Eliza Barnwell Smith and they had four children.

In 1820 Robert Mills was appointed acting commissioner of the Board of Public Works in South Carolina.

In 1823 he was appointed Superintendent of Public Buildings. In the next few years he designed numerous buildings in SC including court houses, the campus at USC, Jails and the Fireproof Bldg., in Charleston, SC

In 1825 he authored Atlas of the State of South Carolina.

In 1836 he won the competition for the design of the Washington Monument in Washington, DC. He also designed the Treasury Bldg., US Patent Office Bldg, and the old General Post Office. In SC, Mr. Mills designed or improved court houses in 18 counties (including Colleton), some public bldgs. (The State Hospital) and some private homes.

Mar 03 1855 Robert Mills died and was buried in the Congressional Cemetery in the District of Columbia. His accomplishments are legendary.

Meeting adjourned.

Those attending: Cindy Belksap., Betty Black, Cathy Branham, Joyce Breland, Dr. David and Bobbie Hiott, Joan Hiott, John Hiott, Matt Hiott, Joy M. Lawson, Moultrie Plowden, Heather Tuten, Victoria Tuten, and Larry Ulmer.

2017 RENEWAL

Thank you for renewing your membership with Colleton Genealogy Society. However, if you have not renewed your membership this could be your last Newsletter. We have enjoyed having you as a member and would like to continue. Please make sure your renewal has been mailed.
