MEETING HIGHLIGHTS October 08, 2017

The meeting was called to order by Archivist, Dr. David W. Hiott.
 Minutes of September's meeting given and accepted.
 Larry Ulmer presented Treasurer's Report
 Next meeting will be November 12, 2017. Mr. Dan Johnson will be our guest speaker.
 Introduction of today's Guest Speaker: Nancy Ulmer Thomas, MS., a retired marriage and family therapist. Ms. Thomas retired from her private practice in California, as well as from the SC Department of Mental Health.
 Subject was Genograms and Genealogy.
 Genograms are a graphic example which displays information on individuals in the family, much like an ancestral chart in Genealogy. Genograms contain hereditary factors and psychological information on an individual. From this genogram you are able to see how relationships and traits are passed on from generation to generation.
 Genograms and Genealogy information both contain the individual's name, sex, date of birth and date of death (if applicable), education, occupation and events of personal interest. Genograms contain additional information such as illnesses and social disorders, as

November 12 2017

Meeting called to order by President, Joyce Breland.

Dr. David Hiott presented a slate of speakers for 2018: January: Elizabeth Lane, February: Dorchester County Archivist, March: Libby Steadman.

Ms Breland introduced our speaker for the day, Daniel McDonald Johnson, former editor of the Press and Standard and currently historian and author. His subject for the day was "Conflicting loyalties among McIntosh relatives in the American Revolution." Two brothers came to the United States from Scotland in 1756. Their loyalties were divided in the American Revolution. Continental were Gen. Lachlan McIntosh, Col. William McIntosh and Col. John McIntosh. Favoring the British were Capt. Roderick McIntosh and Capt. William McIntosh. Lachlan McIntosh was appointed commander of the Continental troops in Georgia and led the Battle of Savannah in 1779. William McIntosh, who currently owns the Book Shoppe in Beaufort, SC. is a descendant of this family. This was a very interesting and informative presentation.
