

THE RICE PLANTER

The Old St. Bartholomew Genealogical Chapter

Volume 2 No. 4 • Winter 1994-95

The Rice Planter is the quarterly publication of the Old St. Bartholomew Chapter, SCGS. All queries and items for publication should be addressed to: The Rice Planter, Carolyn Ramsey, Editor, Route 3, Box 558, Walterboro, SC 29488. All other correspondence should be addressed to: Old St. Bartholomew Chapter SCGS, Judy Ballard, President, 125 Wade Hampton Street, Walterboro, SC 29488. The Chapter encourages members and non-members to submit records and articles that would be of general interest to Colleton County researchers.

The Chapter is still actively seeking information on the location of cemeteries in lower Colleton County (those not published in Cemeteries of Upper Colleton County by E. F. Bryan.) Persons who know of cemeteries in the lower part of the county are asked to call 538-3214 or 549-7641.

The October program was given by Sarah vanZuelyn on documentation needed for membership in organizations such as the United Daughters of the Confederacy and the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Monthly meetings continue to be held on the second Monday of each month at 7:30 p.m. except during the months of July and August.

BEARD (BAIRD), BARTH (BART)

John N. Beard, 101 Tarnassee Drive, Clemson, SC 29631-1840

(904) 743-4084

Seeking information concerning the village of CHEHAW which was at or near Wiggins. Specifically, looking for information about John Christopher BEARD (BAIRD) and where he was born. He was of German heritage and was probably christened Johann Christo BARTH (BART). He died in or near Chehaw in 1767. He was a tailor and a rice planter.

Has old U.S. Geological Survey map which shows Bear Island as being Beard's Island. Other families living in Chehaw and connected to him were: JOULEE, WELLS, HOLMON, and BOSWOOD.

Way and Emily Elizabeth BEACH) on 11 October 1891 in Colleton County. He died 25 October 1924 in Colleton County and is buried in Zion Baptist Church cemetery.
