

THE RICE PLANTER

The Old St. Bartholomew Genealogical Chapter

Volume 10 Number 4 Winter 2002

Dear Members and Friends,

It is always a joy to hear from someone who is reading our newsletter and takes the time to send a comment. We have heard from the Orangeburg Chapter, the last query has been answered to the delight of Sherry Cawley, someone emailed with interest in the movie being filmed in Walterboro as he is from Anderson, SC and sees the real Radio just about every day. We are having members write to tell us their queries which will be included in this edition plus some corrections to the Lane family tree printed in the last newsletter.

What an exciting year we have ahead of us! Look inside for a listing of programs upcoming and mark your calendar to attend. If you are unable to attend, please let us know how we can help you get the information you need. Do you have a question that one of us can ask the guest speaker for you?

Inside this newsletter you will find many surprises and important information that we are hoping can be put aside for future reference. We are trying to make this newsletter user friendly and to have something for everyone. We are starting a membership roll call of surnames our members are searching. Please look over the ones that are posted inside and send yours on to me to include in upcoming newsletters in the new year. We are also asking for a 5 generation chart on all our families. We want to post them as well in an effort to connect our research. You may never know who you might find hiding in your family tree. We want to help you shake a few branches.

We are always looking for family trees to be donated to our chapter research library as well as any published work that you may have done. We are growing in our numbers on the membership roll and are mailing out newsletters all over the United States. Who knows when someone might have an answer for your query. Please take a few minutes during the hustle and bustle of the holiday season, to look inside and see what's new. I think you might be surprised. As you are in the closets and pulling out your Christmas decorations, should you run across any old school yearbooks, old telephone books pre 1980 of Walterboro/Colleton Co., we are most interested in having them donated to our library. Are there any early and/or mid 1900s yearbooks hanging around collecting dust? We would like to give them a home as well as the later half of the 1900s.

Hope you have a Blessed Holiday Season,

Barbara

WANTED: WEBMASTER FOR CHAPTER WEB SITE

Recently, we discovered that almost three fourths of our membership has an email address. With so many of our members having access to the internet, we realized the need for an Old St. Bartholomew Chapter website. It will be an excellent way for our members to be better informed and become more involved in chapter activities. It does not matter where you live to become our webmaster. All it takes is the knowledge to create a website, the necessary space on your hard drive, and the willingness to spend the time to maintain the site. There are others in the chapter who will gladly provide information to go on the website. Check out the other SCGS chapter web pages by going to scgen.org and clicking on the chapter links. Then make up your mind that we could have an outstanding website and you want to create it! Contact Sherry Cawley at sjacaw@lowcountry.com or Judy Ballard at digroots@lowcountry.com. We look forward to hearing from you.

SCGC ANNUAL MEETING IN CHARLESTON

Sherry Cawley and Faye Elkins attended their first SCGS annual meeting in Charleston on October 12, 2002. The first speaker was George Hughes whose ancestor was a part of the 54th Massachusetts Co. "I", an all black volunteer infantry of the Union Army. He spoke as his forebear reading from his diary on his first trip to South Carolina. The second speaker was Thomas Tisdale, who wrote a book, "A Lady of the High Hills," on his ancestor, Natalie Delage Sumter (1782-1841). She was a French girl of nobility who married into the southern planter aristocracy and lived in Stateburg, South Carolina. Our third speaker of the morning was Senator Glenn McConnell, who gave a slide presentation about the raising and preservation of the H. L. Hunley. The first speaker after a delicious barbeque lunch and the annual business meeting was Doug Bostick. He has been actively involved in saving the Morris Island Lighthouse and through pictures and stories gave us an entertaining history of the Lighthouse and the efforts to save it. Our final speaker of the day was Mary Giles, the Archivist of the Catholic Diocese of Charleston. She explained how the Church was becoming more actively involved in preserving its records and what a genealogist can find in them. It was a well-organized, enjoyable and informative day. It was definitely an inspiration for us to work on attracting some guest speakers for our chapter meetings next year.

ON-LINE SITES!

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, usually referred to as the LDS Church, has added three new databases to its on-line site. They are all free and well worth looking into. First, type in www.familysearch.org and add it to your favorites. On the left hand side of the home page will be a section on the 1880 United States Census, 1881 Canadian Census, and the 1881 British Census.

Click on that and a 'Census Records' page will come up. The first box is which census you want. Highlight the 1880 US Census. Then type in the First and Last Name of the person you're searching for. If you know where they were born, add that info. I tend to leave the Head of Household and Birth info blank.

Click on 'Search' in the lower right hand corner. If there is more than one person with that name, they will all be listed. If you find yours, highlight and double click. An Individual Record will appear. The information includes Name, Birth Year, Birthplace, Age, Occupation, Marital Status, Race, Head of Household, Relation, Father's Birthplace, and Mother's Birthplace. It will also tell you the Census Place and what Family History Library Film the information appears. Now comes the 'fun' part.

Go to the upper right corner of the Individual Record page and click on 'Household.' If you're lucky, you will get a chart that gives you all the above information for every person who lives in that household.

About the only thing missing is the date the census was taken, which would help you pinpoint a birth date more accurately. As the Census is considered a primary document in genealogy research, this is a wonderful treasure trove of information that is easy to use. You'll be amazed at who you will find.

Bits of Old Lace

KEEPING UP WITH THE TIMES

Over the past few months we discovered that the chapter has never raised its dues in the 10 years of its existence. Out of the $12.00 you've paid as an individual, the South Carolina Genealogical Society got $5.00 and $7.00 out of $15.00 for a family. That left only $7.00 or $8.00 for the chapter. Now that wasn't a bad deal in 1992, but we all know just how far that takes us today. To bring our chapter up to the 21st Century, we have decided to increase our dues in keeping with the other SCGS Chapters in the state. It's still a great bargain and we have lots of wonderful things in store for our members with great speakers at our meetings, new fundraising programs, developing a Research Center, field trips to other research centers and more! We're even looking for ways our out-of-town members can participate! You can make copies of the form if you know someone else who is interesting in joining our chapter. Fill out your renewal form for 2003 today!
